Understandi Slavic Paganism

AN INTERNATIONAL COLLOQUIUM ORGANIZED BY THE INSTITUTE OF SLAVONIC STUDIES OF THE CZECH ACADEMY OF SCIENCES

20 MAY 2024

9:00

Opening speeches

9:30-11:00

Andrej Pleterski | Primordial Monotheism of the Slavs

Juan Antonio Álvarez-Pedrosa | The Sieve Oracle: From Vestal Priestess Tuccia to Duke Vladislav III's War Fortune-Teller

Enrique Santos Marinas | Deification of Fortune and Misfortune in the Slavic pre-Christian Religion according to the Historical Sources and the Lexical Data

30 mins

Coffee break

11:30-13:00

Leszek Słupecki | Did St Otto of Bamberg like walnuts? The question of mysterious wallnut trees in Szczecin and in Bamberg in context of Pomeranian paganism

Jiří Dynda | Simulacra Semiotics: Visual Representations of Slavic Deities in the Hagiographies of Otto of Bamberg

Stanisław Rosik | End of the world of barbarians or redefinition of the pantheon? The transformation of beliefs and cults of the Baltic Slavs at the time of the missions of St. Otto of Bamberg in 1124-1128

45 mins

Lunch break

13:45-15:15

Leszek Gardela | Slavic Beasts: The Animal Style in Early Medieval Poland and its Symbolic Significance

Jiří Macháček | Pagan-Christian Syncretism in the Archaeological Perspective

Kamil Kajkowski | Pagan, Christian or syncretic? What happened in 11th century Poland?

21 MAY 2024

Christian Lübke | Christians and Pagans: Some Reflections on their Coexistence in Medieval Eastern Europe

Ivo Štefan | Losers and winners: Archaeological insights into changes in religion and social patterns in Early medieval Central Europe

Nad'a Profantová | New archaeological evidence interpreted as traces of pagan rituals, and a cult idol from Bohemia

Paweł Szczepanik | Rowokół Mountain: State of research and new data to the biography of Slavic sacred mountains

Lukáš Dvořáček | No law, no future: early medieval society of Central Europe and its cosmology

Stamatis Zochios | Creating myths through modern popular beliefs: The method of reconstruction in 19th and 20th-century Russia

OPEN ON-LINE STREAM

bit.ly/paganism1 & bit.ly/paganism2

REGISTRATION FOR ON-SITE PARTICIPATION

dynda@slu.cas.cz

